PRESENTER

Bob Chilcott

Described by The Observer as "a hero of British contemporary choral music, Bob Chilcott has become one of the most widely performed composers in his field."

His large catalogue of works, published by Oxford University Press, reflects his broad taste in musical styles, and his love of writing for singers. His output ranges from his much celebrated music for young choirs to a number of larger-scale choral works including his Requiem and St John Passion. In 2013, he was commissioned to write the anthem for the 60th Anniversary of the accession of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

As a conductor, he is much sought after by choirs around the world, and since 1997 he has conducted in over 30 different countries. After leaving the King's Singers in 1997 he conducted the choir of the Royal College of Music for seven years, and he has been Principal Guest Conductor of the BBC Singers since 2002.
